CO-POL-101
General Information and Mission Statement

General Information

The Creative Okanagan Artist and Event Development Society, herein referred to as “Creative Okanagan” or “CO”, is registered as a non-profit organization under the Societies Act of British Columbia registration S-0060326 dated September 26, 2012.

Whenever there is a conflict between the Constitution, Bylaws, Policies, or Procedures, the Constitution and Bylaws shall prevail.

Objective

The objective of the Society is to build a thriving community of musicians and music fans in the Central Okanagan region. We utilize multiple avenues to deliver on this objective including but not limited to immersive Music Series concerts, InTune networking events, artist development workshops, collaborative tourism activities, knowledge sharing, and member performance opportunities. We seek to bring more and higher quality music performances to the population and to improve the confidence, competence, and capacity of our member musicians and the infrastructure that supports them.

Purpose

These Policies and Procedures have been prepared to outline the responsibilities and commitments of the Society, its Board of Directors, and its employees. These Policies and Procedures guide and inform the Board when making decisions about the operation of the Society and will be reviewed regularly.

Vision

A thriving music scene that is inclusive, connected and valued.

Mission

To build a stronger music ecosystem by creating and encouraging accessible music experiences that serve audiences, artists, and stakeholders in the Central Okanagan.

Values

- We lead with integrity
- We show respect
- We value diversity and inclusion
- We are collaborative
- We are creative